Alderman McVey mentioned some cars that needed to be ticketed for no plates. Laverdiere Construction did a great job on our Well project.

Alderwoman Cheek reported the sign on Maple and Third was covered by a tree and it needed trimming.

Alderwoman Finchum also said some yards needed attention. Was pleased to have both of the ladies come and speak highly about the Golf Course.

Alderman Young asked if the refrigerator had been taken care of. He also wanted to discuss the cost of Golf Cart permits on the agenda.

Alderman Eimer reported on positive comments he had heard about the Golf Course. He also wanted to see if the trailer court could be cleaned up. The Mayor stated it was being worked on.

The Mayor explained the history on the disposal of yard waste. A complaint was received about the charge for dumping waste. This charge is levied only for hired work. The Mayor asked the council how they felt.

The Council felt that consideration should be given due to the circumstances involved in this particular case since a disabled citizen was helped in the process.

Motion by Halley second by Eimer to adjourn the meeting.
