Jim Welchel reported that play was increasing for some court sports called Pickle Ball. He felt that the City should put in a court.

Young felt that a batting cage could be used. This could be done by players of all ages.

Randy Brooks reported that High Schoolers were playing at the golf course. Around 40 kids were participating. The Fireman's outing went well.

Chief Eimer gave a short report. He explained the procedure for siren warnings.

The topic of building inspection was discussed. A couple of buildings were becoming a hazard and needed to be inspected.

The City Attorney felt that the City should use a professional (Jeff Gaither) to do inspections. Also, a fast track demolition process could be used. This was explained.

Some questions were directed to the attorney pertaining to how and who would be acceptable as an expert to judge a property as to whether it is in or out of compliance. These questions were addressed.

Dave Blankenship, who is a licensed inspector, identified some areas that needed paid attention to.

Surrounding communities will be contacted to see their approach and exactly what was being enforced.

Necessary ordinance changes will be looked into.
