No public comment.

Police Chief reported to the Council further information on upgrading Police radios. Further prices were being collected and a proposal for consideration at the next meeting. Prices will include refurbished radios and repeaters. Also, the DARE program will begin again at the school.

The topic of the City's website was discussed. More research is needed before a final recommendation will be made.

Two TIF applications were received by the City.

Sip Shack for $700.00

J. Hawes elevator for $3188.13.

The SIP Shack will open in March or April.

The Hawes elevator application is for roof repair. Costs could be less if the City and Methodist Church could cooperate on usage of the 80ft boom truck necessary.

The council took up the membership to the Route 66 Scenic Byway.
Motion by Cheek and second by Evans to approve $250.00 for the membership.
