Mayor McVey reported Officer Eimer is continuing to look at additional quotes for the needed body cameras for the police department.

Tourism Director Scott McCoy was present and gave a report for the past nine months tourism events. He included budget totals and visitor counts.

Mayor McVey had received a business district funding application for Happy Hour Fitness. He is still needing to talk with her for additional details. Discussion will take place at a future meeting.

Laura O'Donnell from Olympia School district was present to discuss and answer questions concerning the Olympia Referendum on March 19, 2024. This will ask voters to decide on two resolutions to stabilize district finances. She stressed this is a tax swap that would not cause the tax rate to increase.

Motion by Halley second by Horn to leave the meeting and go into executive session to discuss personnel.
